Regional stations are well represented at the ACRA's with a total of 175 finalists from country, provincial and non-metro stations.

Chief executive officer of Commercial Radio Australia, Joan Warner said: "As radio continues to innovate and evolve, the ACRA's remain a highlight on the calendar to recognise industry excellence. Radio colleagues from the smallest to the largest radio stations from around the country gather each year in the spirit of friendly competition. It's a night to celebrate, be inspired by peers, and be proud of their collective work as an industry."

Entries were received from 260 metropolitan and regional radio stations across Australia. Winners will be announced at a gala black tie event, to be held for the first time at the Melbourne Convention and Entertainment Centre on Saturday, 18 October.

About the ACRA's

Organised by Commercial Radio Australia on behalf of the radio industry, the national Awards cover 33 categories which encompass all areas of commercial radio broadcasting including news, talk, sport, music and entertainment. The ACRA's differ from television's Logie Awards in that they are peer judged with judging panels are comprised of industry members. Winners are announced in each category across three areas: metropolitan, provincial and country commercial radio stations. The ACRA's cap off the National Radio Conference, which will be held the day prior in Melbourne on Friday 17 October.
